Fair Share dues are based on self-assessment. Fair Share dues are flexible, allowing members to pay according to their ability. It is the essence of the Jewish traditions of tzedakah (generosity), justice and righteousness. According to Talmud, “one loads the camel according to its ability carry...”

- Active members give $500 to $1,000 a year.
- No one is denied membership for financial reasons.
- All dues information is confidential.
- To encourage the growth of this community, those who belong to other synagogues may want to consider dual membership at an adjusted level.
- Our fiscal year runs with the Jewish calendar, beginning with Rosh Hashanah.
